

Ride at your own pace!

Explore Yorba Regional Park, the Santa Ana River Trail, Angel Stadium & More!

Turn-by-Turn Directions

- 1 Exit Wheel Fun Rentals heading straight onto the park path.
- 2 Once over the bridge, turn left on the path.
- 3 As you ride around the lake, you'll pass 1 fork in the road. Continue straight.
- 4 At the 2nd fork, once you're past the lake, turn right onto the Santa Ana River Trail.
- 5 You will come to a bike bridge before the Imperial Highway overpass. Turn left onto the bridge to cross the river. Then follow the path to your right.
- 6 You will ride through a small park area. Just before you reach the overpass, veer left to get up to street level, and then proceed over the overpass.
- 7 Once you have crossed the overpass, immediately turn right to rejoin the trail, following the trail as it loops under the overpass.
- 8 At Angel Stadium, turn around and return the way you came to get back to Wheel Fun Rentals.
- 9 Extended Route: For a longer ride, continue on the Santa Ana River Trail to Huntington Beach! The full length of the ride from Yorba Regional Park to Huntington Beach and back is approximately 44 miles.

POINTS OF INTEREST

(see map for location)

A. Yorba Regional Park

At 140 acres, these lush manicured grounds with an abundance of wildlife make Yorba Regional Park a popular getaway for many locals.

B. Santa Ana River

Tracing its source to several streams in the San Bernardino Mountains, The Santa Ana River is the largest river in California, ultimately flowing 96 miles until it drains into the Pacific Ocean.

C. Chance Theater

Perhaps one of Orange County's most raved-about-theaters, this small ensemble-driven production company specializes in vivid plays and exciting musicals.

D. Santa Ana River Trail

As it flows to the ocean, the Santa Ana River chiseled a route through the San Bernardino Mountains, essentially eroding the earth to create a canyon. The Santa Ana River Trail runs parallel to the canyon.

E. Riverdale Park

This charming 9 acre park features picnic areas, drinking fountains, a baseball field, and playgrounds.

F. Steve Ambriz Memorial Park

Located next to a new housing development, the park features baseball diamonds, and tennis and basketball courts.

G. The Honda Center

Seating up to 18,900 people, this arena is home to the Anaheim Ducks hockey team. The center also frequently hosts concerts for world-famous musicians.

H. Angel Stadium

Opening in 1964, Angel Stadium is the fourth oldest active major league baseball stadium within the United States. Currently, the stadium is the home field of the Anaheim Angels, but also housed the Los Angeles Rams from 1980-1994.
